INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Director of Evening Department, The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)

LESSON FOR SEPTEMBER 28

REVIEW.
Deliverance and Obedience.

READING LESSON, ONLY—Noah's Ark.
9:20-21. See also Acts 7:36-38.
GOLDEN TEXT—Thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and full of compassion; slow to anger and plenteous in mercy.—Neh. 9:17 (Am. R. V.)

The lessons for the past quarter begin with the deliverance of the child Moses and end with the apostasy of the golden calf and cover a period of approximately 80 years. In almost every lesson there is something prophetic or typical of Christ, but two things may be mentioned with special emphasis, viz., the passover, lesson VI, see 1 Cor. 5:7, and the bread from heaven, lesson VIII, see Matt. 26:26, 1 Cor. 11:23, 24.

For the younger classes a most fascinating story can be told when presenting this review. Describe Miriam watching the ark, Pharaoh's daughter espousing the ark, sending the babe to its mother and later adopting it as her son. Tell of the day when Moses made his great choice, of the time he thought he could free his brethren, but failed, not yet having the necessary power from God. Then the 40 years as a shepherd (John 10:14), the revelation at Horeb, the conflict at Pharaoh's court, the passover, and the flight by night, the crossing of the Red sea, the gift of the manna and the giving of the law. Enough is here presented to more than occupy the lesson period.

Four Episodes.
For the older classes. The lessons of this quarter seem to group themselves into four general episodes: (1) Moses, his salvation, education, flight and call; (2) Pharaoh, his pride, humiliation and the passover; (3) the flight, at the Red sea, being fed in the wilderness, and (4) the law, God's holiness, his commandments and the great apostasy.

The following brief review is suggested: Have one class member tell of the steps leading up to the Israelitish slavery in Egypt. Let another pupil present either orally or written, an account of the life of Moses up to the time of his appearing before Pharaoh with his apparently audacious request, "Let my people go." Let that student not only recite the historical facts but also show God's dealing with this son of an obscure slave. He might illustrate by alluding to others whom God has raised up to "do exploits" in his dealings with men, Daniel 11:32. This will cover four lessons. Another pupil should then present as concisely as possible that remarkable conflict which God, through his representative Moses, worked out with Pharaoh. This whole episode was treated as lesson V, the text being Ps. 105:23-36, and in lesson VI the record of the passover. This latter, the great feast of the Jews and Christ who is our passover ought to be carefully and yet emphatically presented. Let us not neglect to present the Bible teaching on this, one of the greatest truths ever revealed to man by a gracious, loving, heavenly father, Heb. 9:22.

Member as Spokesman.
The third episode can be presented if in class by a student, or if the review is a general one by the whole school. Let some particular class select one of its members as spokesman. This embraces lessons VII and VIII and is a gracious revelation of God's protecting care and also his abundant supply for our every need. In this section is, another and a most beautiful suggestion of that "flying bread" so freely provided for all who will accept.

Coming now to the last great episode of this quarter, the events in connection with the giving of the law, we embrace lessons IX, X, XI and XII. Before God gave them the various commandments he sought to emphasize his majesty and his holiness by the smoking mountain, etc. We then have two lessons on the decalogue, a most fitting arrangement inasmuch as the first part deals with the God-side of life—the man's relation to his creator—and the second part has to do with man's relations to his brother man. The last lesson is a terrible illustration of this dual fact. The utter inability of the natural heart to fulfil its high sounding promises; its exceeding sinfulness and the necessity of right relations with him who alone can keep it pure is, it seems to us, the important lesson of the setting up of the golden calf.

The two reading lessons give us the true light of the divine patience and the divine persistence.

The golden text is also an epitome of the spirit of these lessons.

Outline:
1. Moses (a) Training, Lesson I; (b) Fugitive, Lesson II; (c) Called, Lesson III.

2. Pharaoh (a) Commanded, Lesson IV; (b) Humbled, Lesson V; (c) Conquered, Lesson VI.

3. Flight (a) Deliverance, Lesson VII; (b) Fed, Lesson VIII.

4. Law (a) Holiness and Majesty, Lesson IX; (b), (c) Commandments, Lessons X, XI; (d) Apostasy (Golden Calf), Lesson XII.

From Penrose, North Carolina

The Penrose high school opened the 14th inst. with a good attendance for a rainy morning. Professor Riley, of Pickens, is principal, and Miss Gaines and Miss Brown, of Asheville, are his assistants. The prospects for a good school are bright. Up to the eleventh grade is taught in this school.

On the 8th inst., Rev. A. W. Beck finished his task on earth and in a peaceful way just went to sleep and the light of his body went out. He is and will live on in the memory of all those who knew him. His body was laid to rest the day following at Enon. The sermon was preached by Rev. J. R. Owen, of Canton, N. C., and the burial was by the Masdons in a most solemn manner. A large crowd attended the services.

The health of the community is improving. Prof. Bradley is improving fast and will soon be at his work in the school to the delight of all.

M. L. Jones is hoping to be at the home coming at Griffin church.

Peter Griffin, colored, died at his home near Pickens June 27, 1913. He was one of the oldest colored citizens of this section, and was raised by Elihu Griffin. He had been sick three years. He leaves a wife, five children and two brothers, West and Ben Griffin. He was buried at Secona church, J. E. Watkins conducting the funeral services. *

NOW HER FRIENDS HARDLY KNOW HER

But This Does Not Bother Mrs. Burton, Under the Circumstances.

Houston, Texas.—In an interesting letter from this city, Mrs. S. C. Burton writes as follows: "I think it is my duty to tell you what your medicine, Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done for me.

I was down sick with womanly trouble, and my mother advised several different treatments, but they didn't seem to do me any good. I lingered along for three or four months, and for three weeks, I was in bed, so sick I couldn't bear for any one to walk across the floor.

My husband advised me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic. I have taken two bottles of Cardui, am feeling fine, gained 15 pounds and do all of my housework. Friends hardly know me, I am so well."

If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, don't allow the trouble to become chronic. Begin taking Cardui to-day. It is purely vegetable, its ingredients acting in a gentle, natural way on the weakened womanly constitution. You run no risk in trying Cardui. It has been helping weak women back to health and strength for more than 50 years. It will help you. At all dealers.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
